

Boys' Camp 2010 – Terms of Agreement

I, _____, parent of _____ hereby acknowledge that the MAS Tampa Organization and Rotary's Camp Florida, along with its officials, facilities, employees, and equipments, are not responsible for any of the following during the Boys' Camp to be held on February 13th, and 14th, 2010 in Brandon, FL: mental or physical damage, loss or damage of property that my son may incur during this event. I further acknowledge that my son is physically fit to participate in the camp and to the best of my knowledge is free from any medical condition(s) that might put them at risk. I further acknowledge that I/my son agree to the camp rules and procedures, and to abide by these regulations, including not entering prohibited areas of the camp such as the pool, exercise area, or any other place that has not been assigned to our event; also, to obey and follow all instructions given by camp counselors/directors. I/my son agree to apply all relevant Islamic teachings while in attendance at the camp, and to allow camp counselors/directors the right to expel any camper due to behavioral problems,
